BREAM Super Series 2009 Rules - an appendix to the BREAM Qualifying Rules

Entry Fees: BREAM Super Series
$250 (GST included) – Boater
$500 (GST included) – Pro
$110 (GST included) – Non-boater

Prize money is calculated for a field of 100 anglers (50 boaters, 50 non-boaters & 30 pros) and will be adjusted up or down according to the number of entries.

Boater Prize Pool Breakdown

Pro Prize Pool Breakdown

+ Product Prize Pool $5,000

The Super Series events are an upscaled, big money extension of the successful BREAM Qualifying events, the most notable difference being the following:

- 3-day tournament, with boaters and non-boaters fishing the first two days (Fri & Sat), and the top 10 boaters fishing the third day (Sun).

- Anglers (boaters) to carrying their accumulated bag weight through to the third day of competition.
- Top five boaters from each Super Series event qualify for Daiwa BREAM Grand Final.
- Non-day three qualifying sponsored anglers (>10th place) to attend day three weigh-in and pre-weigh-in activities (10am to 2pm), promoting and liaising with public on their sponsors company, brand/ products, etc.

National BREAM Grand Final

The National BREAM Grand Final will be contested between qualifying anglers that receive entry through the BREAM Qualifying events. In 2010, the National BREAM Grand Final will be contested between the following anglers;

	Boaters	Nonboaters
Super Series Events	5	5
QLD, NSW, Vic Qualifiers	4	4
Tas, SA, WA Qualifiers	3	3

- The previous year's Grand Final winner – Boater and Non-Boater
